Soldiers' Letters

Extracts from recent letters written by Sgt. William S. Bennett, Co. D 103, E. Inf., A. E. F., Somewhere in France to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bennett, Norway, S. Gt. Bennett was gassed during an engagement in May and the letters were written while recovering in the hospitals.

May 21.—Just a few lines to say that I am much better and hope to get out there before long and back to the company. Have been here ten days, yet it seems at least two months as time passes slowly.

Was moved into the ward yesterday where all are gas patients. I am acquainted with several fellows in here, so it isn't as bad as the other place where all were strangers. Say! but this is a fine place to study human nature. The guys in the other ward did some awful kidding. One fellow in particular was kicking all the time while he had more care than any one in the ward. Gee! but didn't get tired of his continual growling. He would wake in the night and begin worrying about his breakfast. I'd like to have served him his meals, they would have been only cold potatoes chucked down his throat so he would have remained quiet for a short time at least.

May 26.—Was dressed two days ago and able to go out doors again. Am feeling fine, only get tired easily after walking a short distance. Am going to the base hospital, but can't see why I must do so as my health is so good. Walking up or down stairs makes me breathe fast and my throat feels a little bad in the morning. I don't want to go as my greatest wish is to return to my company. It will now be more than a month before I can return to the boys and possibly never get back with the same outfit. Would like to drop in on you people at home for breakfast, but I know this is an idle dream. Never mind, some day I will be there and eat enough to make up for it all.

May 28.—Arrived at the base hospital and have a dandy nurse. You ought to see the way she cares for us, the discipline is severe compared with the other place, but it is for our good I am sure. Have been in bed since reaching here, but the doctor said I could sit up an hour. It seems like a joke for I am feeling so well, yet the gas patients have splendid treatment and awful good care, plenty to eat and a dandy bed. All I want to get back to my company as there may be "big doings" and I want to be in all the parties, it's "Jake" as we say over here. Now don't worry, dear folks, for I am having the best time imaginable and taking lots of comfort.

May 29.—(To his brother, Howard Bennett). This is a dandy hospital and we have a peach of a nurse. If there wasn't anything going on up front, I'd like to stay here a month. Of course it is quiet here and the only place where interesting things happen is a spot where you can mix up with Fritz occasionally with a "party" you know. My only worry is that I may be sent to a Replacement Camp. When they put you in there can't tell the outfit they will put you in. I will kick if they won't let me return to the old company. I don't care to soldier in any other. Am feeling all right now and I'll take a chance on doing as much hard work as any one. The gas didn't affect my lungs enough to hurt me, even if it did I want to get in one more party and even up things a little.

Probably you are having great ball games now. I haven't played this spring and probably won't for the present as my breath is a little short for running. Our nurse is fine, she reminds me of Mollie always smiling and never cross. Couldn't blame her if she did give up for we do many foolish things when she is not present. This is a great life over here, lots of excitement and victory ahead.

May 29.—(To his sister, Rebecca Bennett). Have been up two hours to-day, then driven back into bed by the nurse, who to my mind is the best one in France. I imagine many fellows have left town for the training camps. Has Woodie gone yet? Is Doris Mills around Norway? I receive letters from many people there, but can't settle down and write much. Get letters from Bess right along, answer one in four they probably think I don't appreciate their thoughtfulness. If you see any who fail to receive answers promptly, tell them I will write whenever I can get time. Suppose everything is just the same about old Jake. I would like to drop up around there for a few days, but I surely appreciate home when over here. After this is over, home is where I want to stay.

June 5.—(To his parents). Still in the base hospital, but expect to leave within a few days. Am feeling great and ready to chance it with Fritz any day. The weather is fine, so can imagine how pretty the old hills and woods are around home. Would love to see my dear folks to-day and hope a year from to-day I can be home for good. Suppose I am called to live for a number of years and worked for Orrington M. Cummings in the live business. After the death of Mrs. Hayes some ten years ago, Mr. Hayes and his three children returned to Groveton, N. H., and for some time, Mr. Hayes has been employed at the Rich stables in Portland.

Several weeks ago he was taken to the Maine General Hospital in Portland for surgical treatment and paralysis followed. Two weeks ago he was removed to his daughter's at Groveton, N. H., where he died.

He is survived by his three children, Mrs. Gertrude Guillette of Groveton, Charles Hayes of Framingham, Mass. and Josephine, wife of Irving Moffat of Groveton.

The services were held in Groveton on Tuesday and the remains brought to Norway in the afternoon for burial in Pine Grove Cemetery.

Leona Sloan is working at Poland Spring during the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry P. Jones went to Andover Friday for a few days' stay. Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. Charles H. Adams, who has been the guest of relatives there for several weeks, returned with them.

My room is three patients besides myself, one from my own company. This rest is fine, but would rather be back with the boys and expected to go into service but for some reason the doctors sent me here. Am feeling fine, but my breath

Sugar Cards

A meeting of the grocers of Norway was held Tuesday evening to take some action in regard to the sugar question and to make arrangements to comply with the new sugar law which necessitates the use of sugar cards on keeping a record of the parties to whom sugar is sold. It was decided to issue cards. Each family wherever residing can have a card provided he already has no card. These cards can be secured from the Food Administrator, Robert P. Bickford, and each purchase of sugar will be punched on the card. The committee appointed to arrange the card system was E. M. Setton, C. F. Hildon and E. B. Jackson. A. J. Stearns presided at the meeting.

Franklin P. Towne

Franklin Pierce Towne passed away Friday noon at his late home in the Yager Neighborhood after an illness of several months of diabetes, at the age of 65 years, 8 months and 23 days. Mr. Towne was born and had always lived on the farm where he died, it being the home of his father and grandfather and had been owned by the family for more than a hundred years.

Mr. Towne was the son of the late Ansel and Julia A. (Hobbs) Towne and was born on October 12, 1852. He attended the Norway schools and the Norway Normal Institute and after graduation was a successful teacher for a number of years and in later years has attended to farming.

He was united in marriage Jan. 1, 1876, to Emma L. Walker of Norway and three children were born to them, Albert A., who is an automobile salesman and manager of a garage at Ashland, Bessie, wife of William A. Delano, who died last year and Katherine Mae Delano, a teacher in the Norway schools and a farmer's wife.

He has held the office of trustee of the Norway Public Library and has been member of the town meeting committee. In religious associations he was a Universalist and in political relations he has been a life long democrat. He has been an active member of the Patrons of Husbandry for more than thirty years and was master of Norway Grange for two years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Emma L. (Walker) Towne, and two children, A. A. Towne and Katherine Mae (Towne) Delano.

The funeral was held from his late home Sunday afternoon. Rev. C. G. Miller, pastor of the Universalist church officiated. The bearers were Virgil E. Dunn, William S. Pierce, Eugene O. Smith and James B. Frost. The house was filled with friends and neighbors, a large number of the members of Norway Grange were present. The flowers sent in abundance, filled the rooms. Interment took place at Pine Grove cemetery.

Edwards-Pike

Ashley Field Edwards of South Paris and Azola Pike of Norway were united in marriage July 3rd at 5 p. m. at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. M. O. Baltzer of the Congregational church. The double ring service was used. The bride was prettily attired in silver gray silk and georgette and wore pink roses. They were unattended.

Lunch was served by Esther Pike, sister of the bride, at the home of the bride's parents. The house was tastefully decorated with wild flowers, ferns and roses. The bride out the wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards left for a short camping trip, after which they will reside for the present at the home of the bride. The affair was simple in all its appointments owing to the delicate health of the bride's mother.

Mrs. Edwards is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Pike. She is a musician of marked ability and has successfully taught pianoforte. She attended the school of Norway, graduating from Norway High school in the class of 1912.

The groom is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Edwards of South Paris, graduated from Paris High school in the class of 1915. He has successfully finished two years of a course at Bates college. Mr. Edwards expects to soon be called to military service which prevents the present completion of the college course. At present he is employed by N. Dayton Bolster Co. at South Paris.

The young couple have the kind wishes of a host of friends for a long and prosperous future.

Only 3500 of the envelopes with views of Norway left, give us your order before they are closed out. 250 for $1.50; 500 for $2.25 and 1000 for $3.75. ADVERTISER OFFICE Norway, Me.

Thomas Hayes
Thomas Hayes, aged 65, formerly of Norway, died at the home of his daughter in Groveton, N. H., Sunday July 7. Mr. Hayes was well known here, where he lived for a number of years and worked for Orrington M. Cummings in the live business. After the death of Mrs. Hayes some ten years ago, Mr. Hayes and his three children returned to Groveton, N. H., and for some time, Mr. Hayes has been employed at the Rich stables in Portland.

Several weeks ago he was taken to the Maine General Hospital in Portland for surgical treatment and paralysis followed. Two weeks ago he was removed to his daughter's at Groveton, N. H., where he died.

Base Ball

Pennesseewassee Swamped the Stock Room

A combination drawn from the Norway High team and players not otherwise engaged, came within a hairs breadth of plastering white wash all over the stock room aggregation, Wednesday evening, July 3. They captured the game 13 to 1 with bunched hits and expensive errors from the stock handlers.

Russell Bethell fresh from Turf Dental College occupied the box for Pennesseewassee, holding his opponents to 3 singles and a double, he disposed of twelve by the three swing arm route. Albert Snow was not so successful on the slab against the veterans. He fanned three, passed six, but twelve singles and a double were scored against him. Poor throwing from the infield with bases occupied and a double hit by Bethell, put the game in spite of good generalship.

C. J. Co. Lasters 7, Norway Commercial 1
Henry Vancouver and his brace of shoelasters from Carroll, Jellerson Shoe Co. pulled over the uppers on the famous (Norway) Commercial Club, who pride themselves as being the blue bloods in town. It was indeed a scandal in the life, and great was the fall thereof. This game was played Friday evening on the fair grounds before a large crowd of spectators in the evening. The rooting cheered the Commercial who retaliated with good interest upon "Fat" Anderson, that long suffering official, giving his best shot to keep peace in camp.

The Commercial appeared with their lineup shuffled a bit. Del Rich occupied the pitcher's box, which was years since past made him famous over a wide territory. Giles Frost, a "find" signed away from the Norway & Paris Street Ry. Co. was sent into the game by Capt. Bethell. Giles some years since was a fast artist, but Father Time has knocked him around lately so his springs and hinges are not one hundred per cent. efficient. But he got there! Charlie Hunt, shaggy from the shoe factory had no bad knowledge and ambition. His only fault was to chase a runner, and throwing the ball would be an easier play and more sure.

The Commercial landed their first, last and only run in the second inning. Paul Seavey singled into left, stole second, made it easy at third then the runner on a dropped strike. Not until the sixth did a runner get on speaking terms with second base. At this time Pike planted a hit into right, was helped to second when Bethell drew a pass. Rich also secured a pass which filled the bases. Frost placed a bunt which was grabbed up by Trafton and Pike retired third on the same play and after backing and hauling fell into a put out. This said goodnight to all scoring chances, which might mean a catch for him.

Bob McCready did a comedy act in the fifth when he fell between first and second and floundered around like a whale stranded on a sand bar. This tangle foot stunt with slow recovery put Trafton and Seavey into a double play that retired the Commercial after a rally opened.

The lasters scored their runs on a prize package combination filled with hits, fumbles, stolen bases and hit by pitched stuff. The misplay "horn of plenty" seemed to be emptied at times most favorable to them, they continually tumbled into "bull luck" which sent runners "over the top." Trafton of the "Seavey Commercial" worked off a home trip in less than two minutes. He singled stole second, made third on the first ball pitched, but got caught on a double play, chancing it on a muffed strike by McCready. This was fast traveling and went to show speed that might be developed when occasion required.

The shoe factories closed over the Fourth. Norway Shoe Co. started only a part of their factory Friday and Saturday, giving the help a short vacation and allowing time for necessary repairs and changes in machine arrangement.

The superintendent of schools office will be located hereafter in the high school building. The transfer has been made from the Old Fellows block into the new quarters especially fitted for the work. Hereafter the office will be used as a training school for commercial students who can secure practical business experience under every day conditions.

Dr. L. Hall Trufant received his commission from Washington, Saturday with rank of lieutenant. He expects to be called into the service at an early date.

Arthur Hobbs has had more than his usual success with the twelve hardy variety of roses which occupy a prominent spot in his flower garden. They are prolific and blossoms by the hundred have been picked. He features the white, yellow and pink, although the last color varies greatly from flesh to the deepest shade even on the same stalk. The American Beauty is unquestionably the most beautiful flower in the garden. Arthur says the shades vary with the soil, so feeds the roots accordingly.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Merrill of South Paris, Willis P. Sadler, Ira Merrill, Marion Purinton, Doris Merrill of Norway and Chester Hammond of South Paris, were here spending a few days at the Sawyer cottage at Greenwood.

The regent, Mrs. Georgia Andrews of Abigail Whitman Chapter, D. A. R., has been asked by the state regent to have the members of the local chapter keep an account of the relief work done from the date of the last state council for one year. Mrs. Gertrude Libby has been appointed a committee to look after the work and to receive the reports.

Fred Jordan of Farmington was the over Sunday guest in the family of W. A. Bicknell.

Russell Bethell has finished work for M. W. Sampson and gone to Naples, where he has employment as chauffeur. (Continued on page 4, 6 and 8)

NORWAY MUNICIPAL COURT

Wm. F. Jones, Judge
Charles Matta of Sumner was brought before Judge W. F. Jones, Wednesday morning by State Automobile Inspector Harry O. Simson. He was fined $10 and costs for operating an automobile without registration. Paid and discharged.

The car had been run nearly three weeks while the respondent was being coached the fine art, but failed to comply with the law when able to coast about the country. Unaided, Inspector Simson followed a tip which brought out a full investigation.

Independence Day Safe and Sound

The Fourth was a quiet day in Norway after a score of youngsters and a few older ones had their say about midnight. Bells were rung, horns blown and a small company filled with liquid enthusiasm performed minor destructive acts common years ago. It is safe to say the night was on par with last year, one of the quietest known.

No fire works or explosives were sold in town. The few who came into possession of these articles imported them, but the celebrators were not without their and their fun unoffensive to the more sedate observers.

Norway was practically deserted during the day. Many were up the lake while others spent the time in the shady woods with their families or worked in war gardens. A large crowd attended the celebration at West Paris and many automobiles into Lewiston where a fine his torical pageant was given and athletic games presented.

A remark was passed that the first Fourth following the end of the war will shake this town to its granite foundations. "We will have a spectacle and some noise that will make previous celebrations look like a Quaker meeting with the lid on."

Methodist Church Notes

Children's Day was fittingly observed Sunday at the Methodist Church, all the services being especially attractive to the young people. In the morning the pastor, Rev. H. L. Nichols delivered a most interesting sermon taking his text from Proverbs 30:24 to 28, drawing his story of "Four Little Things That are Exceedingly Wise" from the examples of the Norway Commercial Club, who pride themselves as being the blue bloods in town. It was indeed a scandal in the life, and great was the fall thereof. This game was played Friday evening on the fair grounds before a large crowd of spectators in the evening. The rooting cheered the Commercial who retaliated with good interest upon "Fat" Anderson, that long suffering official, giving his best shot to keep peace in camp.

The shoe factories closed over the Fourth. Norway Shoe Co. started only a part of their factory Friday and Saturday, giving the help a short vacation and allowing time for necessary repairs and changes in machine arrangement.

The superintendent of schools office will be located hereafter in the high school building. The transfer has been made from the Old Fellows block into the new quarters especially fitted for the work. Hereafter the office will be used as a training school for commercial students who can secure practical business experience under every day conditions.

Dr. L. Hall Trufant received his commission from Washington, Saturday with rank of lieutenant. He expects to be called into the service at an early date.

Arthur Hobbs has had more than his usual success with the twelve hardy variety of roses which occupy a prominent spot in his flower garden. They are prolific and blossoms by the hundred have been picked. He features the white, yellow and pink, although the last color varies greatly from flesh to the deepest shade even on the same stalk. The American Beauty is unquestionably the most beautiful flower in the garden. Arthur says the shades vary with the soil, so feeds the roots accordingly.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Merrill of South Paris, Willis P. Sadler, Ira Merrill, Marion Purinton, Doris Merrill of Norway and Chester Hammond of South Paris, were here spending a few days at the Sawyer cottage at Greenwood.

The regent, Mrs. Georgia Andrews of Abigail Whitman Chapter, D. A. R., has been asked by the state regent to have the members of the local chapter keep an account of the relief work done from the date of the last state council for one year. Mrs. Gertrude Libby has been

Judge For Yourself

Which is Better—Try an Experiment or Profit by a Norway Citizen's Experience.

Something new is an experiment.
Must be proved to be as represented.
The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit.

But the endorsement of friends is.
Now supposing you had a bad back,
A lame, weak, or aching one,
Would you experiment on it?
You will read of many so-called cures.
Endorsed by strangers from faraway places.

It is different when the endorsement
comes from home.

Easy to prove local testimony.
Read this Norway case:

E. C. Libby, Sanborn St., says: "I had backache a great deal and it annoyed me to do anything. My head ached frequently, too. I also noticed little specks before my eyes and my sight blurred.
I used various medicines, but it was left for Doan's Kidney Pills to give me lasting results. Since using them, I have had no return of the complaint and I have great confidence in Doan's."

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE Whereas, Maggie Z. Libby of Norway, in the County of Oxford and State of Maine, by her mortgage deed dated January 2nd, 1915,
and recorded in Oxford Registry of Deeds, Book 213, Page 189, conveyed to us, the underigned, a certain parcel of real estate situated in Norway, aforesaid, bounded as follows:
viz:

Beginning at the southeast corner of land formerly owned by the late Dr. Asa Danforth, now owned by said Danforth, and called "Danforth's" and bounded northerly by said Danforth's lot to the house lot formerly owned by said Danforth and led to the house lot owned by Mrs. Susan E. Libby to the Mill Brook; thence easterly, said Brook to land of Jason E. Rowe; thence by said Rowe's land to the first mentioned bound. Being same property conveyed to Eugene C. Libby by Ella T. Pray, December 14th, A. D. 1893, recorded with Oxford Registry of Deeds, Book 238, Page 383, and by Eugene C. Libby to Maggie Z. Libby, January 7th, A. D. 1899 by deed recorded with said Oxford County Records, Book 237, Page 415.

And whereas the condition of said mortgage has been broken, now, therefore, by reason of the breach of the condition thereof, we claim a foreclosure of said mortgage.

Dated at Norway, Maine, July 3rd, 1918.

KEZAR FALLS

Day's Outing.
July 2nd four automobiles took the members of the L. M. B. C. on a most enjoyable outing; calling at Conway, they invited Mrs. H. A. Pearce, one of their honorary members, to join them and proceeded to Diana's Baths, where the music of the stream and the sylvan solitude was their part. Here they regaled themselves on the contents of their lunch baskets and thermos bottles and forgot for a while the cares of the day, accepting with grateful hearts the ministry of Nature and the gay badinage and repartee of kindred minds.

Mr. and Mrs. William Babcock from Cambridge, Mass., and their three children have been sojourning for a few days with their friend, Mrs. Lilla Gentleman, returning home the first of the week.

Nellie Gentleman of the Burdette Business College accompanied them.

W. O. Merrifield and family and Ralph Merrifield and his family have returned from a few days' stay with friends in Boston and Haverhill.

W. A. Garner and family are at Old Orchard.

Three Flags Unfurled.
The flag raising on the evening of July 3 was a very successful affair and practically called out all the population.
Three flags were flung to the breeze: the Star Spangled Banner, the Service Flag and the Liberty Loan Flag. The order of exercises was as follows:

Music.....Band
Prayer.....Rev. T. N. Kewley
Chairman.....Sidney B. Stanley
Music.....Band
Remarks.....Hon. O. L. Stanley
Solo, "When the War is Over".....Flora Ridon
Recitation.....Rev. Cyril Hughes
Recitation.....Doris Stanley
Music.....Band

The "Army and Navy" were represented on the stage, also Red Cross nurses and Civil War veterans. The exercises took place in Knights of Pythias Hall.
The flags were afterward hung in the Square facing the M. E. Church.

WEBB'S MILLS.
George Burgess has visited his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Winfred Burgess and infant daughter at Westbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shane, Mrs. Re-nna Byrne and daughter of Portland were at George Burgess' Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cook and daughter Helen spent the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Haskell, West Poland.
Helen remained to make a short visit.

H. Edwards was at his home here over Sunday.

H. C. McAllister and Edwin Barton were at Oxford, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Winn of Bridg-ton were Sunday callers of E. A. Barton.

Sarah E. Brown is stopping with Mr.
and Mrs. H. C. McAllister for the present. She is much improved in health.

Mrs. Marcia Cook remains about the same.

Mrs. Carrie Edson and four children of Edes Falls were guests over Sunday of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Winslow.

Cyrus Barton of Poland Springs spent Monday with his sister, Mrs. Mae McAllister.

Nina Burgess has been working the past two weeks for Mrs. Jennie Winslow of Otisfield.

EAST SUMNER.
Fourth of July seemed to be a good day for auto surprise parties. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Buck had six visitors from Livermore and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harlow had twelve callers from Berlin, N. H., Lewiston and Turner. On the same day Henry Bonney took his family to the White Mountains.

The Daisy Club of the Baptist Sunday School gave a most appetizing conundrum supper at the grange hall last week for the benefit of the Red Cross. The net proceeds were $10.50.

Mrs. F. S. Palmer and daughter Muriel went to Lewiston shopping Friday.
Gladys Buck, who has been caring for Mrs. Conant of Canton Point, has returned home for a much needed rest.

BRYANT'S POND
Mrs. Vilis Cummings was called home from New Hampshire last week by the severe illness of her mother, Mrs. Emeline McCrellis.

New field potatoes were in evidence June 29th, on the table at D. A. Cole's home. They were planted on April 22.

The loads of corn have arrived for storage at the Fernald, Keene & True's corn factory. A large number of corn cobs are also being hauled here by motor truck from Turner.

The painters and carpenters are full of business. The Allen house is nearly up and boarded in. Contractor Bacon has nearly finished his job at East Otisfield, where he has erected a large schoolhouse and eighteen smaller buildings, making really a small village. This is the community of the New York Jewfish school.

After a lapse of several months, the Bragdon moving pictures are to be exhibited here again at the opera house.
The first entertainment will come on Saturday evening of this week, July 13th.

W. A. Richards has taken the place of Mr. Pepin, the operator here, who was called to the war.

Several Junior Volunteers are employed on the farms of the town this season.

Myrtle A. Bacon arrived July 4, and will spend the season with her brother, Ralph M. Bacon.

Walter L. Bacon of Norway is visiting at Madagawc farm, called by his son,
Carrie and Georgia Horr and Arthur
A. Cole of Bridgton were Sunday visitors at Ralph M. Bacon's.

The John Small farm buildings in Greenwood owned by Daniel Paine were destroyed by fire late Friday afternoon.
The barn was saved.

PORTER
A neighborhood picnic was held on the 4th of July at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
John Quint. A baked bean dinner was served with an abundance of ice cream and cake. After dinner the guests listened to some good music and a social time was enjoyed by all.

One of Curtis Chapman's mares kicked him in the right leg above the knee on Thursday, making a deep wound. Mr.
Chapman is able to be out again, but is rather lame.

Harold Tucker and his bride of Lynn,
Mass., called on his grandfather, Hanson
L. Chapman on Friday. They were accompanied by his cousin, Maud Bidon of Kezar Falls. Mr. Tucker enlisted with the navy shortly after war was declared.
This spring he was given a discharge because of poor health.

Samuel Wescott visited his daughter on Saturday.

Stomach and Bowels
Out of Order?

It's summer weather, that's all. Your system has not accustomed itself to the higher temperature, and the accompanying change in food and personal habits.

Foods are more apt to be slightly tainted too.
You are possibly eating more fruit than ordinarily—your system must bear the strain of assim-ilating more acids.

All of these causes induce colic, cholera and a mild form of dysentery.

Blackberry Cordial and Rexall Quick Relief

These preparations are especially prepared to relieve summer bowel complaints, and we can highly recommend them.
If you are interested come in, and we will be glad to explain the formula and purposes of any of them.

If you feel that you are suffering from any form of these ailments, do not delay, it might easily grow more serious.

W. W. Goodridge lost his fine horse one day last week.

BETHEL

Songo Road

A heavy frost in this vicinity, June 20, killed everything that was up except peas and small vegetables. Geo. Haggood had potatoes that were budged that are as black as your boot.

Frank Bartlett has commenced haying. C. F. Upton and Robert Clough are helping him.

The mercury went down to 22 degrees June 21, some cold night.

Frank Haggood and Lawrence Knight are peeling hemlock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Upton spent the week-end at Olin Upton's at Norway.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kimball spent Sunday in Portland.

Ella Barker has returned home after spending three weeks with her son, W. B. Baker of Bethel.

W. B. Baker and family spent the fourth with C. F. Upton and family.

Eva Haggood has been laid up with quincy. She could not speak aloud.

Mrs. Lawrence Knight has also been sick, they both were under the doctor's care.

Ed Good has gone to Bethel to work at Bethel Inn. He is boarding at "Vira Holt's."

Vernie Brown and Harry Churchill are peeling pulp for Eben Kilburn near the Woodland cemetery.

WEST PERU.

L. K. Lovejoy and family together with several friends enjoyed a picnic dinner on Stockwell Hill the Fourth.

George Cushman of Woodstock was in town looking for a mate for a Duhum calf, recently.

Millard Dodge is helping Charles Tracy with his haying.

The Fourth passed very quietly in this location.

Crops are beginning to suffer from the effects of the dry weather.

Harlan Child of Dixfield plans to enlist in a short time, though he is too young to be drafted. At present he is assisting his father on the farm. We are proud of such patriotic young men.

If you want metal for habbets, we have it and will sell it at a reasonable price. Advertiser, Norway, Me.

HARTFORD.

Mrs. Lottie H. Merrill

Thursday, June 20th, the community was saddened to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Lottie H. Merrill, wife of Chas. Merrill at the age of 72 years.

Mrs. Merrill was a member of the Advent church of South Livermore, the W. C. T. U. and Hartford Sewing Circle, in all of which her cheery and helpful presence will be greatly missed as well as among all who knew her.

Four children, Mrs. E. F. Bryant and Mrs. E. D. Waterhouse of Hartford, Albert N. Merrill of Exeter and Lora C. Merrill of Wollaston, Mass., sixteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren survive her, also four sisters, Mrs. Helen Haradon of East Auburn, Mrs. Martha Booker of Bowdoinham, Mrs. Menzies of Hartford and Mrs. Emma Strout of Poland and three brothers, John Collins of Massachusetts, Lora Collins of Portland and George Collins of Auburn. Most of these were present at the funeral, Sunday, June 23, as well as many neighbors and friends.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Among them a basket of flowers from the W. C. T. U. and large sprays from the Ladies' Circle and M. E. church. Rev. Merton Snow of Bridgton conducted the services and Mr. Luce, Mr. Hiseock and Mr. Snow sang several selections. The bearers were Herman Berry, Wilder DeCoster, Charles Libby and Harvey Thompson. Interment was at Bear Mountain cemetery.

Sunday morning, June 23rd, at 10:30 the Hartford Center Sunday school observed children's day with some very interesting and pleasing exercises conducted by Ida Brown, the superintendent, assisted by C. Ethel West and Miss Hammond. Atheneum Hall was very prettily decorated and the music and speaking was very good. One exercise entitled, Life, by Miss Brown and six young ladies was particularly interesting.

WATERFORD

Mrs. Erastus W. Ayer

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Ayer widow of Erastus W. Ayer, died at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of her son, Olin P. Ayer, Auburn. Her death has caused by a shock, her illness lasting only about 45 minutes. She suffered a shock several years ago, but had been in good health for the past few years.

Mrs. Ayer was born in Waterford, April 23, 1843, daughter of Zebadiah and Joanna Whitehouse Perry, being the only child. She lived at Waterford for about 40 years, coming from there to Auburn. She has lived in Auburn the greatest part of the time since then. She lived for a few years at Everett, Mass., until the death of her husband at that place, July 13, 1898. During the time she has been in Auburn she had made her home with her son, at whose home she died.

She was a member of the Burnside Relief Corps, Auburn and of the High street M. E. church, Auburn. Her only near relatives living aside from the son, with whom she lived, are: another son, Frank C. Ayer, a granddaughter, Mrs. Stella M. Fields and a great-grandson, Clayton Fields, son of Capt. and Mrs. Fred T. Fields, Auburn.

HARRISON

Scribner's Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Grover have been entertaining a large party of relatives. Mrs. Grover's sister-in-law, Mrs. Jennie Haggood with her children and their families to the number of eleven, motored down from Stratford, N. H., bringing with them her sister, Mrs. Nat Bennett and daughter, Rebecca from Norway, and their two sons, Charles and Alton Grover, with their families, came from Bolster's Mills with them. Monday Mrs. Grover accompanied the party to Gorham, returning late in the evening, when the New Hampshire people returned home.

The farmers commenced haying here, Tuesday, July 2.

P. E. Culbert hauled hay from Waterford for Jesse Scribner, Tuesday, July 2.

Frank Grover carried his uncle, Banister Grover to Waterford in his auto, Sunday.

Jesse Scribner and Fred Little went to Waterford, Wednesday, July 3rd, to look over some hay. Mr. Scribner has bought there.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gilkey entertained Mr. and Mrs. Gibson and son from Oxford, Sunday, June 30.

Will Lewis of South Harrison is helping J. K. Robbins with his haying.

A WORD FOR MOTHERS

It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life.

If work is tiring, if your nerves are excitable, if you feel languid, weary or depressed, Scott's Emulsion will prove a wonderful strengthener.

It possesses the very elements to invigorate the blood, nourish the nerves and build strength.

HARKEN BACK ON THE PAST

Twenty-four Years Ago This Week C. B. Cummings & Sons have commenced to build their pancake manufactory. It is to be just beyond their large smoke stack, boiler and engine where their other mills were burned, though not on the site of their former pancake shop. It extends further back from the river and is to cover quite a good deal of ground. Mr. Cummings says he intends to build his buildings lower so in case of fire they can easily get water on them. The pancake business is one of the big industries here. The Messrs. Cummings formerly employed about 75 hands in manufacturing them.
 Wm. F. Jones is reading law in C. E. Holt's law office.
 Dr. P. N. Barker has a new and stylish looking doctor's cart.
 Noyes & Andrews of the Blue Store are to put an addition on the rear of the store to accommodate their tailoring department. Work commenced this week.
 Dr. S. Richards of South Paris has given twenty clocks to the sufferers from the great fire and says he still has a few more left.
 S. S. Smith has picked 132 bushels of strawberries from his garden this season. The most of them were sold in this village.

Noted Prospector
 The following was taken from the Coos County Democrat:
 Mr. and Mrs. George Howe of Norway, Me., have been visiting at Walter Colby's in Lancaster. Prof. Howe is President of the Maine Academy of Science, and while he calls these trips around the mountains a vacation from his study he is always watching with the keenest eyes, trying to detect some sign or indication of some valuable metals or stones, for he is an exceptional expert in geology. His collection of gems and precious stones is considered by the Harvard experts to be the best private collection known anywhere. The most remarkable about this is the fact that Mr. Howe alone has prospected and found nearly every kind of nugget, gem, diamond, pearl, etc. In fact Mr. Howe has in his collection some of the most uncommon and rarest of stones, some that have never before been found except in the remote foreign countries. One can conceive something of the quality as well as the quantity of this collection when we learn that Tiffany & Co. in gathering their celebrated collection to exhibit at the Paris Exposition made several sections from these cases, and Mr. Howe says every specimen won honors.
 A gem expert and dealer in Paris bought one specimen. It soon was sold again to a German agent for the Royal Art Collection, and this is at present in Kaiser Wilhelm's Art Collection at Potsdam, Germany. This appears to somewhat annoy Mr. Howe, who says he has told the boys to get it.

 Song, America..... Ruth Brett
 Recitation..... Ruth Brett
 Question, "What farm boys in military service should be paroled to keep up the efficiency and supply of farm labor. Discussion by Mr. McAllister, Mr. Denning, Dennis Martin, in favor that our boys must go over across some what may be the necessity of music to the soldiers."
 Reading, "New Nation Foretold," Mr. Huntingdon
 Reading, "The Spirit of 1776," established at Charlestown, Va., October 1, 1896.
 Roll Call, "Why I Love My Country."
 Closed grange in form until August 17.
 Frank True has put a cement bottom in his barn cellar. P. C. Smith of Norway did the work.
 Lillian and Maude Haskell are home for a few weeks.
 The ladies have returned the 36 surgical shirts all done, which was spoken of last week and more to do from Poland Spring. Red Cross unit also given five more pair of stockings, one sweater, gift of Mrs. C. E. Morey and one pair of stockings. The 50 wipes or knit sponges in last weeks items were by mistake called wipes. Mrs. Frank True and Mrs. Marion Johnson have loaned sewing machines.
 Kelsey Denning has a fine lot of pigs.
 Orin Martin is working at the power house nights for a few weeks.
 Geo. Tyner has bought the hay on the old Jim Poland place.

SOUTH ALBANY

Burton Patterson has moved his household goods to Bethel. Mr. Patterson and family left for Bethel, June 29. They visited Mrs. Patterson's brother, Herman Holt several days before they went.
 Rose McAllister is visiting her sister, Mrs. Will Card at Norway.
 Wallace McAllister is visiting his cousin, David McAllister.
 Mrs. Fannie Kimball and daughter, Blanche, have recently spent a few days with her father, Charles Eames.
 Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Brown of East Stoneham visited their son, Ernest Brown Sunday.
 Mrs. Jackman of Windsor, Vt., has recently visited her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Henley. Mrs. Henley and son, Jeremiah, returned with her for a short vacation.
 Lillian McAllister attended the dance at the corner, also Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wardwell and Cecil Kimball. Mrs. Wardwell and Mr. Kimball were the musicians.
 Guy McAllister carried a party to North Fryeburg, Saturday, June 29, with his car.
 Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Savin visited their nephew, Holden Savin and wife at Waterford, Sunday, the 30th, and called on their daughter, Mrs. Arthur Millett. Mrs. Millett is gaining as fast as could be expected from her recent illness.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. W. York have returned from Andover.
 The Dresser school closed Friday, June 28, and Miss Morris returned to her home in Oxford, Saturday. We are very sorry to learn that she has decided not to return for the next term as she has done such good work and was very much liked by both pupils and parents.
 Mrs. Jennie McAllister cleaned the schoolhouse here and presented the school with the money which she received for the work. The schoolers purchased Thrift Stamps with the gift.
 Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Henley recently visited his son, E. C. Henley. Mr. Henley's daughter was ill with the German measles at the time and fear of contagion prevented them from visiting her which was a great disappointment to all.

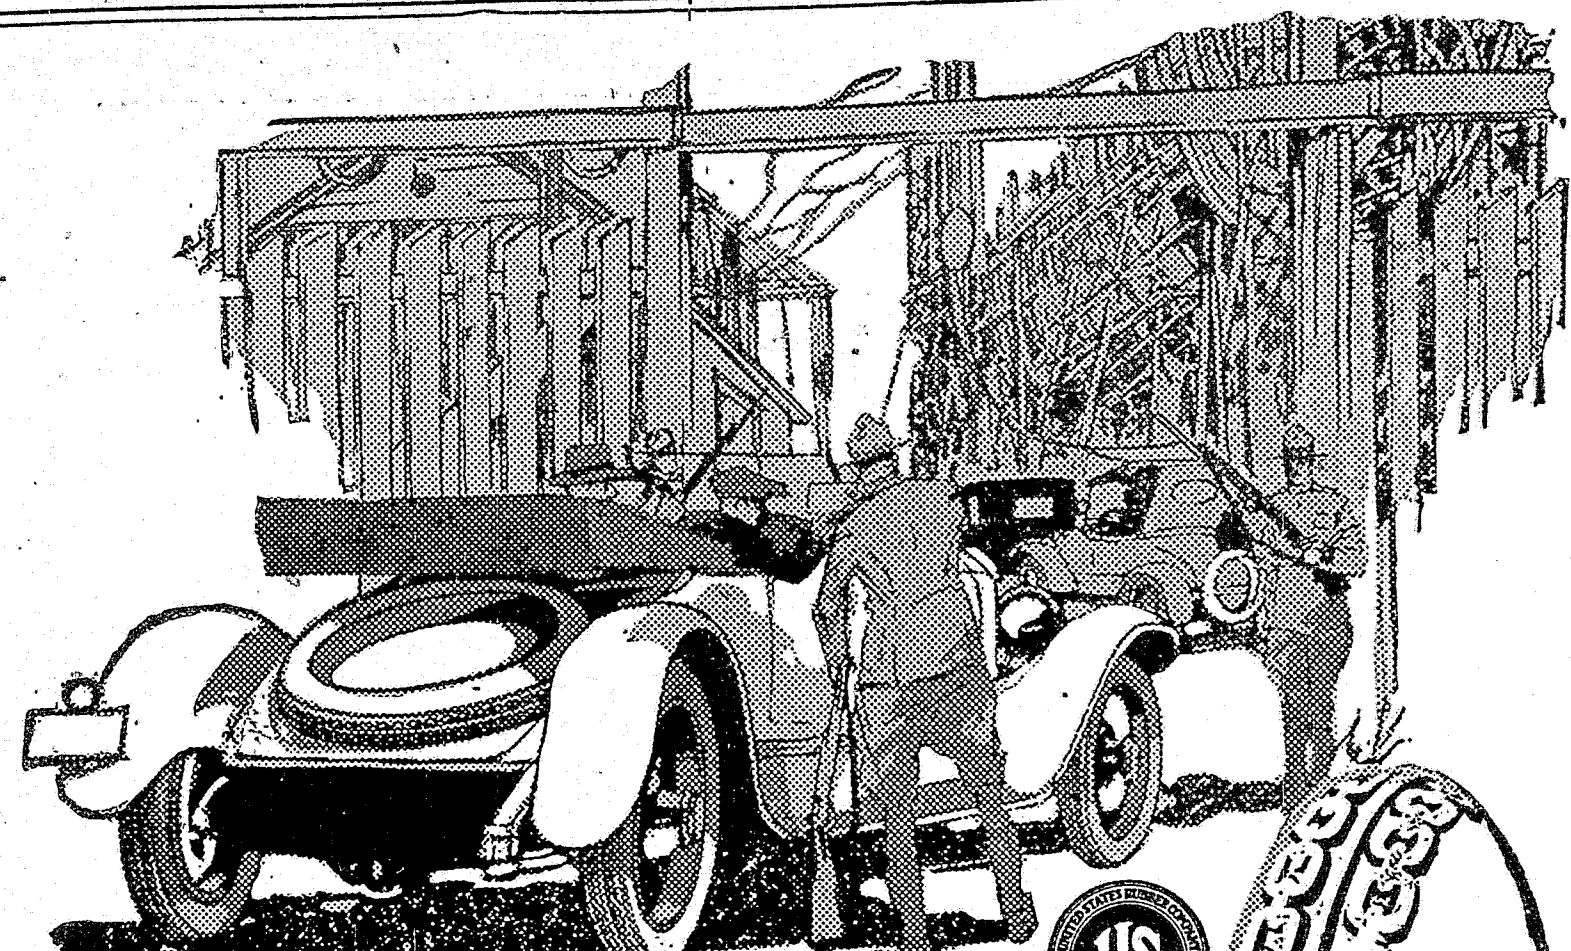

A Good Idea

Why change the name German measles to Liberty measles? It seems that the name German is more fitting for this disagreeable disease than to use the beautiful word Liberty in connection with it.
 Merritt Savin has sold his steers to Jason Scribner and bought a pair of H. M. Morey of Bridgton. Mr. Scribner was also buying wool. He paid 70c per pound.
 Howard Millett sent last week with his grandfather, Merritt Savin.

EAST FRYEBURG

Two Deaths

The death angel has visited our little neighborhood twice within a few days, the first time taking the infant daughter, Helen Doane, of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Smith. She was nine months old. Funeral services were held at the house, Sunday, June 23.
 The next time, Chase, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harnden. He met with a fatal accident when he was working on the road near Lewiston. He was loading empty tar barrels when one came down from some height above him striking him on the head. They took him to the hospital and performed an operation on his head which was unsuccessful. The accident occurred Friday and he died Sunday night.

INCREASES THE STRENGTH AND ENDURANCE
Of weak, nervous, care-worn, haggard-looking men and women in a remarkably short time. This is found to be the effect of the new medicinal combination, Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pepsin, one taken before eating and the other after.

These two medicines, whose great merit has been fully established everywhere, are made from the best formulas for the blood and nerves. If a laxative is needed take Hood's Pills. They are gentle and thorough.

NORWAY CENTER
A large crowd from this vicinity gathered at Gibson's grove the Fourth and a very enjoyable time took place. The weather was all that could be desired and this grove is always a popular place for an outing. It being very warm bathing was in order by old and young the greater part of the day. Early in the afternoon a base ball game took place in the pasture above the grove which was close and interesting throughout. Carl Brown was the pitcher for one side and Harold Wyman for the other. Brown was in the short end of a 12 to 8 score at the beginning of the ninth inning, but his team mates started a batting rally and with sensational playing by Benny Tucker scored seven runs winning 15 to 12.

Rev. and Mrs. M. O. Baltzer visited at this place the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Verbit visited relatives at Mechanic Falls, recently. H. A. Knightly and family spent the Fourth at A. P. Farnham's.

There will be an auction Saturday, July 13 at 1 o'clock p. m., rain or shine at the farm of the late Sumner C. Davis, North Harrison. Sale includes agricultural implements, carts, carriages, pump, separator, hay, farming tools and household goods. This is conducted by Nellie E. Fogg with D. M. Stuart, auctioneer.

Base Ball

weather man didn't relent until after the shop closed at noon, many players made other plans so failed to show up. Manager LaFrance got a move on and the Commercial Club, the Sarsaparilla sees and one or two shoe factory outfits. Uncertain about an appropriate name for this composite combination, the appellation, "Non-descripts" was plastered on as the most suggestive.

It was sure some game, filled with thrills and sensational goods. Both teams fought hard, keeping the score close with hits at a premium. Freddie LaFrance as a twirler for the "Nons" held Van- court's sluggers to three singles during nine innings. He was opposed in four innings by Prudence Bedard, followed by Neal Brown for one whirl, then Henry, the chain lightning exponent finished the game. This dope ball failed to get the victims as in previous encounters, for the composite outfit slugged freely. They found nine singles and a two base hit in Henry's assortment during his five innings in the box. The batting rally which commenced in the fifth inning won the game from the lasters who practically had the result picked in their favor.

The "Nons," who were supposed to be cutters got the first run in the first half of inning one. Bethel made this tally after being passed, stole second and crossed the plate on Curries neat single to left. The again drew another lone run in the fifth which tied the score. Bethel again circled the bases after three were down. He singled into center, worked a throw which sent him to second, then third on LaFrance's hit, but scored when Currier again sent the left fielder foot footing in. Two runs were scored, he then the winning streak, and it was a solarpexus for Henry, who received a terrible punishment in a very few minutes. Singles by Freddie LaFrance, Sargent and Bob McCready, with a double from Currier netted the lucky party.

Everything opened rosy for the lasters as the outfit are veterans of many campaigns, and trained to a razor edge. Bedard, a reserve pitcher opened the game but the nervous strain gassed him in the first innings, and Henry finished when Neal Brown won a release after a short acquaintance with the box.

Lawrence Descoteau was the first laster to score, this being the second inning. He was given a free walk, found second on a wild throw from McCready, took third on a catcher's fumble, then raced home safely when Alex Locke singled on short infield grounder. Descoteau also purlined another run for the lasters in their fourth. Freddie hit home amidst ships and on securing this pass the runner stole second, went third when Boulter sacrificed and scored as Alex launched into right his second hit for the day. Geo. LaFrance did his bit in the sixth and found a run on a hit, compounded with several expensive fumbles and a solid livery play.

Considering wet grounds, which made heavy hitting and clean fielding impossible, this was a good game. It was one of the hardest fought battles in the series thus far. The rooters found great material to work upon and exercised their right under the written law, to jam hard and spare no person.

Cutters 14, Stock Room 2
Carroll, Jollerson Shoe Co. cutters played Hoop-la all around the stock room on the fair grounds Wednesday evening, winning out with top heavy score 14 to 2 in 7 innings. This was a regular contest in the "Cobblers' League."

Ben Bancroft pitcher for the stock fitters, was in wrong during the 3 innings, as his support failed to measure up to the demands. He made the balls too good, and the cutters laced beauties into the out field with ease. As it is supposed rubber in their gloves and sole leather skivings in the eyes caused a serious slump in his pitching average, but fattened the market value of his opponent's stock.

Freddie LaFrance, the opposing twirler, met with kinder treatment and his aggregations were less apt to go astray in pitches. He held the stock room to 4 hits, struck out 8 and his bunch pulled his opposing shaggy surprises which caught the cutters through the safety net.

The stock men captured their first run in the second inning with two down. Sanborn slugged out a two sacker, stole third, scoring when Bancroft singled over second base. Their last puny score just squeezed across in the fifth when Sargent was given first and second on Purington's wild throw almost to Brown, then crossed the plate when "Fat" Anderson dropped a perfect throw by Dunham, who handled neatly a hot dog from Burnell's bat.

Scoring commenced in the first inning for the cutters when Purington laid out a single, Dunham lifted a double and LaFrance placed a fielder's choice, followed by Ben's wild pitch, chalked up 3 runs before the stampe could be checked. Another terrible cyclone struck in their second. Downing got "beamed" but was forced out at second by Nevers. Two fielding errors in succession, a fielder's choice and wild pitch were the contributing causes for 5 of the 6 runs gained in quick order. Stevens' muff in center of Bernier's fly, a bad throw by Fletcher to catch the stealer and a base on balls for Purington and his two stolen bases added two more runs. In the fifth Bernier laid down an infield grounder which nobody cared to handle, Poindexter cut-fled around Purington's offering and a grounder to Sanborn fielded home, caused everything to upset with no put outs. LaFrance's single into center capped the climax and 3 runs were chalked up as a result of this scramble for notoriety. He remained like a sphinx during the game and no amount of kidding could jar his equilibrium. He has handled the electric car patrons too many years for this trifle to give him a case of nerves.

Five Hundred Dollars for Red Cross
The 4th of July celebration was a complete success, the day perfect, the only nice summer day several days before or after. The parade of horrors and automobiles were fine and a good display. In the "faded off" on the Bryant Currier netted the leader so nearly represented the real leader that the latter was not sure whether it was himself or not. There was one load representing the men's fire department and another representing the women's fire department. A company of fanatics represented Ridlon's home guard. The "burdy gurdy" team with a little boy dressed in scarlet for a monkey went around among the crowd with a tin dipper in his hand gadding up dimes and nickles for the Red Cross. Another team and cart to look like an automobile with an old wheel barrow hitched on behind for a dray represented the Curtis livery stable. One of our tallest, largest framed men and a half grown boy were dressed like women and carried yellow pennants with "votes for women" on them. There were several other representations of farmers with farm implements and all were very comical.

The women's fire department got first prize and the Bryant's Pond band second prize. There were several prettily decorated autos, the Red Cross auto receiving first prize. A company of little boys dressed in sailor blouses and blue ties with their leader from Bryant's Pond marched with the parade and gave a military drill which added much to this part of the program.

The Bryant's Pond band was in attendance and played several selections before the flag raising after which G. W. Q. Dehman announced the program and appointed Rev. H. H. Hathaway master of ceremonies, who offered prayer. The band played America and then Rev. Alexes Raita offered prayer in Finn for the Finnish people present, after which Mr. Hathaway introduced Rev. C. G. Miller, who gave a short, but excellent address. Athletic games, dinner, more games and base ball game followed, West Paris against Berlin, N. H., which resulted in a score of 6 to 4 in favor of Berlin. The streets were filled with people and automobiles.

The immensity of the crowd can only be realized by the amount cleared for the Red Cross, which was $500. The movies and dance were also well patronized.

Pitts-Wall
The latest wedding announcement is that of Diana Josephine Wall, daughter of Mrs. S. Josephine Wall, of Rockport, to Everett Eugene Pitts, of Rockport, July 2nd in Boston, Mass. Miss Wall has been the beloved principal of our high school for the past four years and she has engaged to return for the coming school year. Mr. Pitts is a soldier lad in the service.

Charles Tucker of Colebrook is visiting his daughter, Mrs. S. T. White, here and Mrs. W. S. Austin at South Paris. Miss Chase, Dunham of South Paris visited her aunt, Mrs. O. K. Yates, first of the week.

Mrs. G. A. Smith recently received a visit from her sister from Mt. Vernon. Mrs. Chase, Dunham of South Paris visited her aunt, Mrs. O. K. Yates, first of the week.

We made a mistake some time since when we said that the grange voted to hold only one meeting in July and August and that to be the second Saturday evening in each month. We should have said the fourth Saturday. There will be no grange meeting this week, but Saturday evening, July 27th there will be a meeting, also August 24th. In September they will again resume the old order and the meetings will be held every second and fourth Saturday afternoons of each month.

Dr. and Mrs. I. W. Staples have taken a little girl, Dorothy Jordan of Portland to keep through the summer.

District Superintendent Holt of Lewiston will be here next Sunday and will preach in the Free Baptist church morning and evening, also go to North Paris and Greenwood.

The M. B. State Sunday School Superintendent Brown will be here next Monday evening.

WEST LOVELL
Oris LeBaron and wife and Sarah Stearns were in Portland last week. Several from this place were at Center Lovell July 4th, to the Red Cross dinner. The DeCrafts came to their cottage Saturday and intend to spend the summer there.

The cook arrived at Went's Camp on Saturday. Mrs. Kate Williams is being visited by Mrs. Russell of Massachusetts. Two fielding errors in succession, a fielder's choice and wild pitch were the contributing causes for 5 of the 6 runs gained in quick order. Stevens' muff in center of Bernier's fly, a bad throw by Fletcher to catch the stealer and a base on balls for Purington and his two stolen bases added two more runs. Former Norway Musician Noted Composer
George W. Horne of Lewiston and well known here, composed the music for the song, "America, My Country," which was sung in public for the first time by the large chorus at the All-American meet in Lewiston, July 4. It will eventually become one of the greatest patriotic songs in the country.

The words of "America, My Country," were read into the Congressional Record by Congressman Siegel at the conclusion of an intensely patriotic speech. It brought Congress to its feet with a mighty cheer; and the words so eloquently spoken have been placed on record—honored unique in our history.

Vernon Stiles, director of the mammoth chorus, said, "These are glorious words and I can imagine no music that could be more fitting to them." This compliment is highly gratifying to the host of friends who are anxious to learn more of this famous composition.

The words are as follows:
AMERICA, MY COUNTRY
America, my country, I come at thy call, I pledge thee my life and my soul; In peace or in war I am wed to thy weal, I'll carry thy flag through the fire and steel; On sea or on land shall I suffer disgrace, Unswerving I stand for thy peace-loving race; In reverence I kneel at sweet Liberty's shrine, America, my country, my country, I am thine, America, my country, brave souls gave thee birth.

We yearned for a haven of freedom on earth; And when thy dear flag to the winds was unfurled, There came to thy shores the oppressed of the world. Thy tales of thy bounty shall come at thy call; Who takes of thy nectar of freedom shall say, "America, my country, my country, I obey!" America, my country, thy flag I adore; If glory in peace, but it fears not in war, Thy granite words shall tramples its fold in the dust.

Old Glory undaunted, is true to its trust; Seven women a nation's work were done; A message of hope to mankind, through the moon, And children of men bless the red, white and blue. America, my country, the tried and the true! America, my country, now come is thy hour; The Lord of Hosts recks on thy courage and power; Humanity pleads for the strength of thy hand, Lead liberty perish on sea and on land; True guardian of freedom, thou keeper of right, When liberty bleeds there is task for thy might, "Divine Right" of kings or our freedom must fall—America, my country, I come at thy call!

THRILLING EXPERIENCE ON THE CAROLINA

Niece of Mrs. Charles Blake on Vessel Tell of Events on the Doomed Ship and the Struggle to Safety.

Miss Caroline Denison Higgins of Arlington, Mass., a grandniece of Mrs. Charles G. Blake of this town, was one survivor of the Porto Rican steamer ship, Carolina, which was sunk by a German submarine. Miss Higgins is a great granddaughter of the late Lucius Denison, who was killed in the war.

Miss Higgins was on her way home from Porto Rico where she had been teaching school in the San Juan High school. She was accompanied by her friend and companion, Charlotte Perkins of Melrose, Mass. For forty-four hours without food or water in an open boat they struggled with the sea and landed on the beach at Atlantic City, June 4, in an exhausted condition. Miss Higgins tells the story of her terrible experience as follows:

"Before going to dinner on the night of June 2nd, I noticed that the Carolina had changed her course for no apparent reason. That was the first intimation that anything was wrong. While finishing our soup course a gentleman at the table announced, 'All lights out tonight by the order of the captain.' This remark aroused our suspicions a little, and we were told that the change in the ship's course was due to some wireless message which he had picked up, unknown to the crew.

"Our apprehension was beginning to be aroused when 'Boom' a dull report was heard in the distance. The body was electrified. We stopped eating and each looked at the other. As we were death still—'Boom'—another shot rang out over the water. Several men jumped from their seats and peered out of the windows. Substantially one of the men on the watch sent us all to the main deck in a hurry. Dinner was forgotten in an instant. A thrill ran down my spine as another 'boom' reverberated through the low cabin. There was no confusion. We all wanted to see what was happening. Curiosity was our first instinct.

"As we gained the deck, we could see a long low craft speeding toward us from the eastern horizon. Suddenly there was a hissing shriek, as a shell from the submarine's forward gun plowed the water not more than twenty feet from the Carolina's side. Again there followed that same hollow report we had heard in the ship's saloon. Sharp orders were given to 'stand by the boats, each one in his place ready for any emergency.' I had been assigned to boat No. 5, on previous Thursday and went quickly to my position. Everybody was talking in subdued tones and we were tense with excitement. Yet there was no rushing about and no uproar. I thought of my outer coat which I had left on a steamer when I went down to dinner, and I left my position long enough to get it. All the while the submarine was coming closer and closer. The ship's engine had stopped when the second shot was fired. Soon we could see the men and the officers on the deck of the submarine. The U-boat came toward the Carolina, and then, without warning, it came to a standstill near our stern. There were no commands given and none of their crew came aboard. We were all expecting to be torpedoed and were getting impatient to swing the boats into the water. When the more ado we climbed in. Even then the crew refused to lower the boats. They said they were waiting for the proper order. But the order never came.

"Instead, the men assigned to boat No. 5 took matters into their own hands and swung the boat clear and into the water. She struck the surface bow foremost, and shipped a lot of water before the man at the stern would let go his end. We were all wet to the waist with the icy water. There was no plug in the boat's bottom and the water came bubbling in. Finally someone found the plug, and stopped the hole with it. They threw us a pail to bail it out with. Then we gradually began to rise. Some of us were sitting on the thwarts with our feet on the floating water leg, while the bailing was in process. Then the men assigned to our boat came down the rope ladder after she was aloft. Manning the oars they pulled away from the doomed ship. 'Hold on there' came order from somewhere. We followed the nine boats to the westward toward the Carolina's stern. Then the U-boat made a complete detour about the ship, with the evident purpose to see that all the crew and passengers were off. We lost no time of getting out of harm's way, and all kept together. The submarine backed away from the Carolina and began to shell her almost immediately. Not a word of any kind came from the U-boat commander or crew. It was most unreal. A girl in our boat took out a pencil and jotted down each shot on a piece of paper. Eight shots were fired. Soon the cabin burst into flames, and in fifteen minutes she sank from sight. We could hardly believe our senses. It seemed all so unreal and impossible—and in American waters.

"After our cabin was drenched, we were taken in tow by the loan motor boat in our group, after furnishing a man from our boat who could run the engine. Two different ropes with which we were being towed parted in the middle. There were seven women, a mixture of old girls and young ones, a mixture of twenty-nine men in our boat. We kept up our spirits as best we could and rowed for the shore in the direction of the setting sun. Soon flashes of lightning were seen and thunder became audible as the night came on. That frightened us a little, but we believed we would soon be picked up, so we did not worry. Then came the wind. It rolled the water into white-capped mountains and broke us free from the motor boat. That was the first we saw of the motor boat, as darkness settled down upon us most instantly. For three hours we fought the storm alone. The water came down in torrents. All our efforts were spent in keeping the boat's bow to the wind so that we would weather the storm and in bailing the water which repeatedly splashed us from head to foot. I gave my coat to three other women who were huddled into a corner. One of the men gave his raincoat to another lady. Nearly everybody was seashell but I was not. Several men were rendered useless and could do nothing. I bailed and helped care for the sick ones, it was a terrible night. No one slept a wink. During the height of the storm we heard voices crying in the night, but we could not go to their assistance. At intervals we learned that the motor boat had been swamped and some of the crew drowned. Those voices must have been our fellow passengers on the Carolina. I shudder to think of it. It seemed ages before morning came. No one tasted water or food during the first twelve hours of our isolation. On Monday we divided the men into shifts to conserve their strength for

"BEST MEDICINE FOR WOMEN"

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Ohio Woman.

Portsmouth, Ohio.—"I suffered from irregularities, pains in my side and was so weak at times I could hardly get around to do my work, and as I had four in my family and three boarders it made it very hard for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. I took it and it has restored my health. It is certainly the best medicine for women's ailments I ever saw."—Mrs. SARA SHAW, R. No. 1, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Mrs. Shaw proved the merit of this medicine and wrote this letter in order that other suffering women may find relief as she did.

Women who are suffering as she was should not drag along from day to day without giving this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice in regard to such ailments write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its forty years experience is at your service.

FRYEBURG

Returned From the West
Mrs. Wallace R. Tarbox, National President of the Ladies of the G. A. R. who has been in the West for the last ten weeks, returned to her home, June 6th. Mrs. Tarbox reports a delightful trip and says, "the coming Encampment in Portland, Oregon, will be one well worth attending." She also made the statement "that the Veterans of the Civil War were never so much appreciated as today."

Mrs. Tarbox's friends all over Maine were delighted to learn of her safe return. Much regret was expressed at her absence from the Department Convention in Augusta as it was the first Convention she had ever missed. A telegram of greeting was sent to her in Hamilton, Ohio, also a beautiful tribute of the love felt for her by every member.

Take a Tip From US

Choose Your Suit Now

Our Uncle Sam has taken control of the wool trade, and the question of future clothing for the boys "over here" does not look encouraging. However, we are not losing heart by any means. We have got right now at this time a wonderful stock of exceptional values in

Kuppenheimer Suits

$20 to $35
And Other Good Clothes
$15 to $25

But we believe in self preservation. Just what a few months more will develop no one can tell. We confidently believe from our close observation of the market that clothing will not only be extremely scarce but decidedly higher in price—and having your interest at heart we recommend that you buy your anticipated new suit now from our present stock. Money thus invested will bring you larger dividends, in money saved, than any other good investment we can tell you about.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Brown are nicely settled in the rent where his parents first went to housekeeping now owned by Mrs. Fanny Brown.

John Kilgore remains in poor health. He and his family are living in his brother's, W. H. Kilgore's, house.

Harry Brown is having his mill buildings shingled. He has purchased a nice pine timber lot.

Will McAllister's family visited at Eugene Lovejoy's Tuesday.

Leah Hobson has been staying at Camp Caroline a few days with her aunt Mrs. Archie Plummer and children from Berlin, N. H.

Charles Bryant is here on a visit to his parents the first time for several years. They had a family reunion there one day last week.

Bisectown
Leola Hatch of Lovell and Marlene Littlefield are visiting their aunt, Annie Hazelton.

Henry Durgin killed a veal calf Saturday.

Albert Tripp, Jr., has been helping John Grover with his hosing.

Evelyn Morse is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Rilla Marston.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hazelton was at Stonham Monday night and got 10 quarts of Charlie Stearns' fine strawberries.

Mrs. Lizzie Morse has returned from Lovell, where she has been on a visit to her sister, Mrs. George Marston.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hazelton and Mr. and Mrs. Merton Hobson and daughter Leah were at West Bethel the 4th, and then attended the dance at North Lovell in the evening.

EAST STONEHAM

Hiawatha Lodge, No. 49, Knights of Pythias, East Stoneham hold their dance in Pythian Hall as usual this Friday evening.

These assemblies are given every other week to raise funds for their new piano. Everybody is given a good time there.

AUCTION SALE

75 horses to be sold at auction at the Stock Yards, Yarmouth Junction, Saturday, July 13, 1918, at 1 o'clock, p. m., sharp.

One load of fresh horses from R. L. Fletcher, Nebraska. An extra good lot of horses right off the farms where they were raised, weighing from 1200 to 1600 pounds. You will find the young fresh horse that you have been looking for in this lot.

25 seasoned horses right out of work, all serviceably sound, weighing from 1100 to 1500 pounds. This class is greatly in demand at the present time. They were bought right and we can sell them money.

25 head of French War Horses that were surplus to requirements. All young, sound and ready for immediate use. Suitable for farming, teaming, driving, etc. A few saddle horses. 10 sets of single and double harness.

We advertised the sale held June 29th as the last we would hold this summer, but owing to the unusual demand for horses, we think it advisable to hold another sale of good work horses, Saturday, July 13th. This will positively be our last sale of the season, therefore it will be to your advantage to attend.

OUR GUARANTEE: Buyers must be satisfied with their purchases or money refunded.

Sale positive rain or shine. Private sales daily. Unexcelled railroad facilities direct from yards. For further particulars apply to is short and I grow tired easily. We have plenty of sun, good food and sleep so I should work hard.

Dear mummie, I wanted to send you a birthday present June 10, but only a letter and wish for many happy birthdays with lots of love and kisses can reach you this time. I have three months pay coming but don't know when I can draw it, therefore I am "broke."

There isn't much to write as I haven't been out around the place. Have only seen the worst part of France, but now we are in the best portion and a beautiful place.

You have asked me what the Red Cross is doing for the boys. Now believe me, everything given to the Red Cross is used for the best cause imaginable. The Red Cross workers everywhere. Coming here they went through the train at a number of places with chocolate bars, smokes and hot cocoa. At the other hospital the Red Cross nurses gave the patients fine care and interested themselves in every soldier, showing the greatest patience, always smiling and never unkind. Their ability and endurance is wonderful.

Probably you have read about the hospital men. Now just believe me, when an American soldier is ill or wounded, everything possible is done on the field for his comfort. Many suffer terribly until they can get him off the field. After reaching the hospital on these splendid trains, they have only the very best surgical treatment and experienced nursing.

June 10—As I cannot send a present for this, your birthday, I will write and my love goes with it, and therefore you may have many more happy birthdays. A so the wish we can all be together at this time next year.

It sure will seem good to be home again but I am glad that I came over here when I did, for I know you are glad, also. The life is interesting but a hard one. It is for a good cause for we know victory will come to the allies. I am in a hurry to get back into the front line as I wish to be there with the outfit when the drive comes.

This place is wonderful! It does seem good to stroll about and lie under the pines again. No place is as good to me as dear old Maine, however, no better place could have been chosen for a rest than this spot. Am feeling O. K. except the breathing, which is a little short at times, yet that is passing away rapidly, so don't worry a bit over me. This is a great vacation and I am enjoying myself.

Have not received mail for a month, so it will seem good to get some news from home or any other place. When writing, be sure and mention all home happenings as they are mighty interesting.

Suppose Soward's school has closed since the planting nearly done. When I return, I am going to set right down on the farm and just work on the place all the time. Shall not work out with the horses as I used to as home is going to be the place when this is over.

Letter to E. J. Hobbs, Lakeside Holstein Stock Farm, Norway Lake, from Sgt. Bennett.

Must let you know about a little gas I received. It is bad stuff and affects me all over. It weakens as though the victim had passed through a long sickness. I am going to set right down on the farm and just work on the place all the time. Shall not work out with the horses as I used to as home is going to be the place when this is over.

Suppose you are busy with the farming. Wish I might be there while resting. I am just back from the front line, where I am right, but to walk around the yard makes me "all in." Am improving and feel much better than when they sent me here. I don't believe I could pitch hay or saw wood as before. I should worry as they furnish a bed with nothing to do but remain quiet and rest.

The censor works over time for all we can do is write letters. We send so much foolish stuff he gets disgusted and shuts someone out the censor and Pat said in his letter, "Beggara if ye don't receive this, ye'll know the censor destroyed it."

which I am sure is characteristic of a progressive and civilized people. I hope you are getting along O. K. in your work and that you are not working too hard, as you might in your case. I wish you would write home to your mother, for she must be worrying quite bad now since she has found out that I am over here.

If the good Lord is willing and all goes well, I will return. Well, sis, I want to write Zora this evening, so I will have to bring this to a close soon. I will try and write you again in the near future, but in the meantime, write me, as really letters serve as a medicine to a sick person over here, especially to me. It does get lonesome here at times, but am fighting it off as best I can, for I know I am here for a purpose and when that is obtained, I will return with a contented mind as many will, also. My love to you always dear sis. With oceans of love I am ever your loving brother.

Your Young Brother,
Letter from Priv. Jacob A. Klein Co. P. 39 U. S. Infantry A. E. P. to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Klein, Norway.

Private Klein is one of four brothers who are serving in the great war.

At last we have arrived in France, where I may have a better chance of partaking in this world war, which I consider an honor. We had a very enjoyable trip across the Atlantic ocean, but at the end, it did become tiresome, and I was not so keen to see land so bad, and believe me, it is much appreciated now that we are on land. Of course you folks must know that we can't write you people all, therefore, I won't have much to say this time. I hope dear folks, I am glad I wasn't over here for I am in the best of health and shall stay that way, also that there is no such thing as one being in danger if it comes one's time to die, no one can ever help it. I believe that there is a similar one all to go, therefore we should not stop to think about that, but just go ahead with our daily duty which is set aside for each and every one of us to do.

What land I have seen thus far is very regular, there are not many mountains and everything is in full bloom. We have longer days here which is very natural, for we are way over here in the east where the sun rises about four and one-half hours ahead of that where you folks are. The sunsets were especially beautiful while we were on the water. I have heard of those pictures no artist can paint, and really that is the one I observed practically every evening. The first few days across I was seasick which was natural since I never have travelled on water much, and am glad I wasn't as sick as some, for really it's an awful sickness to have come over here.

I am anxious to hear from you as I haven't for such a long time. I hope everything is O. K. with you all at home and remember not to worry. Bees, please see that Mother and Dad are continually kept up with their spirit and encouragement, don't look on the dull side of things, it's the bright side that we all must picture before us every day and I am sure that some day we will all enjoy a happy family reunion, when all of us return.

I suppose Sam and Abe are still in service at their respective places. Also Esther; she wrote me just before I left Camp Mills, N. Y. She wrote that her camp is the largest in U. S. There are over ninety thousand soldiers there and many nurses. I hope she will stay right there. I had a letter from Zora a few days before I sailed. Her services will also last until the war is over, which hope will be soon. He wrote me a very interesting and encouraging letter which really was a pleasure to read. Be sure to write me just how mother is now days. I hope Dave and Bess are getting along O. K. at school, but we know each of them are doing. Dave, remember me to Bert and the rest of my friends for I can't write to them all.

BOLSTER'S MILLS.

Mrs. Baits, the pastor's wife from West Paris, is conducting a Bible school here for three weeks. We understand that the Bible and its history are taught. There are twenty-three pupils from Oisfield and Harrison.

Jasper Haggerty and family are stopping for the summer months at the home of Mrs. Jennie Akers.

Mrs. Flora Stearns and Mrs. Winnie Snowman of Portland passed the Fourth with Mrs. George Skillings.

Dorothy Wight of South Paris and Mrs. Lucy Deering of Denmark were recent guests at E. A. Wight's.

Mrs. Elizabeth Scribner visited Mrs. William Smith of Harrison and attended the grange meeting there.

A delegation of young men who are stopping at Camp Kineo passed through the place recently under the command of Prof. Lawrence Wight, brother of E. A. Wight.

The Red Cross entertainment given by the local unit was a success socially and financially. There was a varied program was appreciated by a large audience. Mrs. Mabel Jilson, Ethel Ingersoll and Nettie Hancock were the committee.

Rev. Stanley Carne preached at Winslow Sunday, returning home Monday.

Many of our citizens went to Harrison to attend the celebration the 4th of July, and certainly were rewarded by the fine program they listened to and viewing the most excellent parade.

Several visitors from other granges attended the local grange meeting, Saturday evening and assisted in the program. The candidates received the first and second degrees.

Members of the Red Cross from Harrison village attended the local meeting Tuesday afternoon and gave instruction in making bandages. There is much interest manifest in the work.

OTISFIELD GORE

Perley Holman and family from Greenfield, Mass., Arthur Holman and family from Norway Center were entertained the Fourth at Mansfield Holman's.

W. A. Brett and wife were host and hostess to a party of sixty-two relatives and friends who met at their home to celebrate the holiday. A bountiful picnic dinner, ices, fruit and lemonade was enjoyed in the new barn. Many guests from out of town came to be present at this reunion.

Mansfield Holman and wife attended church and the baptism at Bridgton, Sunday.

Lena Buck has been spending a few days at Grand View Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. York and party visited Oliver Buck at Helron, Sunday.

Mrs. Clarence Hall and children and Rena Buck have been visiting their sister Ruth Brett.
